The “Me Too” Movement
Tuesday, January 8, 2019
In light of the “Me Too” movement, Professor Joe Raab takes a look at sexual abuse and the future of the Catholic Church.

The Bible Says What?
Tuesday, February 5, 2019
Professor Ian Bell examines issues raised by biblical stories about women and how a re-examination of those stories can serve as a resource for the church today.

The Problem with Providence
Thursday, March 7, 2019
All Christians share a belief in divine providence, God guiding all to a good end. Yet, to many, it appears God’s plan is not going very well, leading often to despair, apathy, or disbelief. Assistant Professor Wendy Crosby helps participants explore how providence may be leading them to action.

SIENA FACULTY
Joe Raab
Ian Bell
Wendy Crosby

COST
Series cost: $25
Cost per session: $10

LOCATION
Weber Retreat & Conference Center
1257 E. Siena Heights Dr.
Adrian, Michigan 49221

REGISTRATION
• 517-266-4000
• www.webercenter.org
• webercenter@adriandominicans.org